Mount Pleasant Neighbourhood House (MPNH) is seeking an innovative and creative Early Childhood Educator for our dynamic Preschool program. The MPNH Preschool offers 3 different 3 hour classes to 3 to 5 year olds from a multicultural and diverse neighbourhood. The successful candidate is passionate about working in a program that subscribes to the approaches of responsive and emergent curriculum and is enthusiastic about co-creating a nurturing, encouraging and rich environment where children can fully explore and learn through play.

Qualifications:

- ECE certificate and license to practise
- Experience working within a responsive-curriculum approach
- First Aid training and certificate
- Valid Criminal Record Search
- Minimum 2 years child care experience working within a multicultural environment
- Excellent interpersonal skills, including both written and oral communications
- Strong knowledge of child growth and development
- Understanding the fundamentals of the Early Learning Framework and its implementation in Early Childhood Settings
- Knowledge of the broader child care field and its role within the community
- Experience working in an inclusive child care setting
- Good sense of humour

Desired (but not required) qualifications:

- Class 4 drivers driver's license
- Specialized training in working with special needs children and their families
- Additional language
- Specialized training in the Reggio Emilia Approach or Emergent Curriculum

Terms: 24 hours per week. Sept - June

Salary: $18.10 – $20.09 based on experience and qualifications + benefit package

Closing Date for Applications: January 22 2018 at 4:30 pm
