Better at Home Coordinator

Posted: May 25, 2022

Closing: June 8, 2022

The Better at Home and HUB Coordinator is responsible for the coordination and supervision of all Better at Home services. This is an integral position to the Seniors Team at Mount Pleasant Neighbourhood House and is an excellent fit for an individual who is driven to support the well-being of seniors in our community, a detail oriented administrator and is a strong connector. The Coordinator is the key contact for our Better at Home HUB, including supporting the intake and assessment of new seniors, monitoring the ongoing well-being of current participants and maintaining relationships with referring organizations.

The successful candidate will understand processes of co-creation, be adept in working with and liaising between funders, and professional bodies as well as the community at large. This individual will be responsible for lifting the visibility of the Mount Pleasant Better at Home program as well as assisting in establishing us as a HUB for senior services.

Key Responsibilities:

- Conducting regular intakes and monitoring needs of participants
- Coordination and supervision of Housekeeping services, including risk management, scheduling and supervision of housekeepers
- Strong management of external partners including VCH, and hospitals
- Oversight of other BH services including Meals Delivery, yard, work, friendly visiting.
- Evaluate program needs and establish partners with a HUB and Spoke model
- Reporting and Data management
- Facilitation of local seniors planning table
